Congratulations to Bev Turner for a richly deserved award.

The AGM was held on Sunday the 31/3/2019. The turnout of members was 19 only. It was confirmed that the $20 subscription will remain the same. Your Invoice will be emailed or posted to you as soon as possible.....

At the AGM the President honoured Bev Turner with the Life Membership Award for the Waikato Ostomy Society Inc.

He acknowledged Bev's services to the Society as President for 2 years, as Secretary for 7 years and as a Committee Member for 9 years.

Pat & Phil Rogers presented Bev with a bunch of flowers.

The President also presented Helena MacDonald with an award acknowledging her contribution to the Ostomy Society.

The Waikato Ostomy Society is hosting:-
The Ostomy NZ Education, Support and Training Conference

9th 10th & 11th August 2019

CHECK WITH YOUR AIRLINES (xGoogle)

All Stoma products are considered medical essentials, so you are allowed to take them as an additional clear plastic bag of liquids through security. Most airlines also offer extra luggage weight allowance of around 5kg, for free; you just have to call 'Special Assistance' at least 48hrs in advance. Jan 7, 2015

Senior Moment

My apologies, I had a Senior Moment with the last Newsletter and repeated a couple of jokes.

My excuse is my manufactured date of 1949

Why is it that your nose runs, but your feet smell?

A fourth grade teacher asks the class, "Have any of you ever saved somebody's life?" A little boy raises his hand, "Yes, my little nephew's." "Wow, what a little hero you are! How did you do that, sweetie?" asks the teacher. The little guy replies, "I hid my sister's birth control pills!"
